

Richard W. Swift, MD, FACS

Description:

In 2003, New York Magazine listed Dr. Richard Swift in its annual "Best Beauty Docs" issue devoted to the finest cosmetic surgeons in the New York City area. Dr. Swift was one of only 15 doctors featured in "The Cutting Edge," a section about the city's most promising "up-and-comers" in plastic surgery. The article cites Dr. Swift's professional training and his unique Brazilian technique for abdominoplasty as two of the elements that make his patients' results rank among the best in the area. Please feel free to contact our office about this and other procedures.
